

CONTENTS

Preface xiii

Part One

The Challenge of Thinking Ethically

---

1. Introduction: Ethics, the Renaissance 3

Ethics, Science, and Values 4

Science and “Scientism” 4

New Determinants of Ethical Thinking 5

Wonder 5

Practical Wisdom 5

Religion 6

Regaining Our Ethical Sense 7

Dire Consequences in the Absence of Ethics 7

The Good News 8

War, Terrorism, and Globalization 8

Reinvigorating Ethics 10

Justice, Class, and the Common Good 10

Power, Affluence, and Fertility 11

The Urgency for Ethical Action 12

2. Is There Such a Thing as Moral Truth? 15

Proof of Truth-Claims: Scientific and Moral 15

Moral Language 16

Verifying Moral Truth 17

Custom and Morality: The Relativist Temptation 18

The Role of “Choking” in Moral
Intelligence 19

Relativism No, Relational Yes 20

The “Ask God” Fallacy: The Fundamentalist Temptation 20

Economic Fundamentalism 21

Constitutional Fundamentalism 21

Religious Fundamentalism 22

Is Enlightened Self-Interest Enough?

The Survivalism Temptation 23

Survival as Ethical Tool 23

The Problems with Survivalism 23

So, Again: Is There Such a Thing as Moral Truth? 24

Part Two
The Theory of Ethics

---

3. The Roots of Moral Meaning:
The Foundational Moral Experience 29

The Foundational Moral Experience (FME) 30 The Good/Sacred Nexus 31 The Oxymoron Called Supreme 31 The Supreme Sacrifice 31 Skinner’s Mechanistic Moral Behaviorism 32	Skinner, Rand, and the Supreme Sacrifice 32 The Dangers of Reductionism 33 “It Is a Far, Far Better Thing . . .” 34 The Humanities and Self-Sacrifice 34 The Wonder of the FME 35 Enough Said? 36
--	---

4. The Elements of Moral Thinking: Affectivity, Faith, and Process 37

Affectivity 37 Where Computers Dare Not Tread 37 Human Responsiveness, Not Emotivism 38 Redeeming the Mystical 39 The Emergence of Cherishing 40 Spiritual Anorexia and Autism 40 Nature Shocks 41 Curative Anger 42	Faith 43 Self-Evidence 43 Heart-Knowledge 43 Verifying Faith-Knowledge 44 Process 45 “Man of Humanity”—or of Depravity? 46 Egoism and Righting Moral Wrongs 46 Human Moral Possibility 47 Self-Love 48 The Mystery of Self-Sacrifice 48 Moral Behavior as Self-Serving 49
---	--

5. Theories of Justice:
What’s So Good about the Common Good? 51

Justice as Key 52 Love and Rights 52 Suum Cuique: To Each His or Her Own 53 The Words of Justice 53 Needs and Rights 54 Not a Contract 54	When Practice Is Wiser than Theory 55 The Three Sides of Justice 55 Commutative Justice 56 Social Justice 57 What Social Justice Requires 57 Sacrifice and Society 58
--	--

Distributive Justice 59
The Need for Democracy 59
Agents of Distributive Power 60

Government: A Necessary Evil? 60
 The American Faith 61
 Government against Greed 61

6. From Awe to Strategy: The Art and Science of Ethics 65

Ethics: Daring to Define It 67
 Art 67
 Science 68
 Sensitivity 69
 Method 70
The Wheel Model 71
A Disclaimer 71

Beware the Lazy Mind 72
 Principles 72
 Insight 72
The Taboo Block 73
Cognitive Modesty and Booming
 Certitudes 74
 Paradox and Humility 74
 Seeking Solid Ground 75

Part Three

Asking the Right Questions: Introducing the “Wheel Model”

---

7. The Subject of Ethics: Defining the Model of the Wheel 79

Defining the *What 80
 Words Matter 80
 The Is and the Ought 81
What Are We Talking About? 81
Fighting the Vacuum of Meaning 82
 What’s in the Name Marriage? 83
 What’s in the Name Terrorism? 83
 War: How to Define a Mutant 84
Embarrassment and the Need for Heresy 85
 The What and Moral Meaning 86
 What Is Sex? 86

Power and the “Superpower” Illusion 87
Redefining the What of Power 88
 Violent Power 88
 Nonviolent Power 88
 Switch 89
The What of Abortion 90
When Naming Is Knowing and Misnaming
 Is Not 90
Overloading the What? 91

8. Deepening the Probe: Why? How? Who? When? Where? 93

Of Why and How and Ends and Means 94

Motive: Understanding the Why 94

Means: Understanding the How 95

When Means Become Ends 95

Work, Wealth, and War 95

Beyond Dualism 96

Dissecting Motives 97

Blossom to Root 97

Process, Not Stasis 97

Volition and Velleity 98

Velleities: Epics of Deviousness 98

A Canadian Comparison 99

Velleity and Illogic 100

Velleities and the Law 100

Does the End Justify the Means? 101

The Moral Status of Style 102

On Knowing Who's Who 103

On Becoming a Better Who 104

Who Are the Poor? 105

Is a Fetus a Who? 105

Is a Soldier a Who? 106

When? and Where? Questions of Time and Place 106

9. Foreseeable Effects, Viable Alternatives: The Link to the Future 109

Consequentialism: Gauging the Effects 110

New Debts to the Future 110

Future Myopia 111

"A Man Can't Just Sit Around" 111

Seduction by Projection 112

The Principle of Double Effect 113

Psychological and Moral Disassociation 113

Proper Use of the Principle 114

The Tyranny of the Majority: The Utilitarian Temptation 115

A Master of Disguise 115

How to Ponder Proportionality 116

Moral Myopia: Missing the Viable Alternatives 117

Withered Talents 117

Low-Hanging Fruit 118

Paralyzed by Insensitivity 119

Thinking Alternatively 119

The Sanity Dividend 120

Ethical Critique 120

Calculating Benefits 121

Lessons for Ethics 123

The Effects–Alternatives Link 123

Back to the Wheel 124

Decisions of the Conscience 124

Part Four

The Moral Mind in Action

10. Trusting Our Feelings and Emotions 129

The Power of Evaluative Affectivity 130

Living in Sin? 131

Exorcising Demons of Habit 131

Feeling versus Orthodoxy 132

First Response	133	Show Me Your Delights and I Will Tell You
Acts of Knowing Awareness	133	What You Are	140
Inchoate Judgment	134	Delights as Mind-Stretching	140
Affective Knowing	135	The Many Faces of Delight	140
Affect Phobia	136	The Nether Side of Delight	141
Our Bodies, Ourselves, Our World, Our		Character as Moral Architecture	141
Universe	137	Recognizing Character	142
Dangers of Disaffection	138	Beyond Sociopathy and Stupidity	142
The Sinews of Community	138	Yes, but How?	143
A Caution: Beyond Romanticizing Nature	139	Relief from the Tyranny of Experts	143

11. Creativity and Surprise 145

Retreating from Creativity	146	2. Quiet Passivity, Leisure	156
The Steep Climb of Morality	147	Pragmatic Considerations	156
In the Pantheon	148	Losing the Talent for Leisure	156
Ethical Creativity	148	Esteeming Contemplation	157
Creativity as Fusion	149	Leisure as Achievement	158
Work, Discipline, and Creativity	150	3. Work and Discipline	158
The Good News	151	4. Malleability and Collision	158
Restlessness, Capacity, and Joy	151	5. Kairos	159
More Flickers of Hope	152	Recognizing Opportunity	160
Setting the Stage for Creative		Languishing on the Vine	161
Breakthroughs	153	6. At-Home-ness	161
1. Enthusiasm, Excitement, Passion	153	7. The Courage of the Heretic	162
The Daimonic	153	Creativity Run Amuck	163
Marks of Social Excitement	154
Elements of Risk	155

12. Principles and Their Limits 165

The Importance of Generalization	166	How to Fire a Principle	172
Moral Principles Are Different	167	Coercive Power and Empire	172
Beyond Divine Revelation	167	Consensual Power	173
Ethics as Dialogue of Principle and		Ideals and the “Feeble Mind of a Nation”	174
Context	168	What Makes Ideals Special?	174
The Courage to Critique Principles	168	Sustaining the Hope	175
The Quest for a Universal Blueprint	169	Exceptions and the Limits of
Kant the Transgressor	169	Consistency	175
Autonomy and Immaturity	171	Thomas Aquinas’s Exceptions	176
When a Principle Becomes a Fetish	171	Ethical Realism	176

The “Situation Ethics” Frenzy 177
 The Domino Theory 177
 The Pendulum Effect 178
On Sticking to Your Principles 178
 When Oath-Breaking Is a Virtue 179
 Ugly Compromises 179

Moral Judgment: Between Wisdom and Principles 180
 The Doctor’s Dilemma 181
 Orchestrating Moral Living 181

13. The Role of Authority and the Work of Reason 183

Experience and Infallibility 184
Forms of Authority 185
 1. Experts 186
The Oracular Temptation 186
Abuse of Authority 186
Sacred Tyranny 187
 2. Peer Group Authority 187
 3. Tradition 187
 4. Charisma 188

Reason Hot and Cold 188
 Hot Moral Reasoning 189
 Sociopathic Ethics: When Reason Turns Cold 190
Reasonable or Rationalistic: The Role of Objections and Heresy 191
 Yes, But! 192
 The Role of Heresy 192

14. Group and Individual Experience: “We-Think” and “I-Think” 195

The Myth of Moral Maturity 196
Group Experience: The Value of “We-Think” 197
 The Illusion of Independence 197
 The Downside of We-Think 198
The Role of Class 198
The Power Differential 199
From Autonomy to Parasitism 199
Hypocrisy as First Line of Defense 200
 The Upside of Group Experience 201
Comparison as Ethical Strategy 201
Limits of the Private Sector 202

Work or Slavery? 202
The Illusion of Independence 203
A Caution on the Demonic Comparison 203
 Minority Wisdom: The Galileo Effect 204
Individual Experience: The Value of “I-Think” 205
 Respecting Brainpower 206
 Religion: Enemy or Friend of “I-Think”? 206
Individual Conscience and Ecclesiastical Authority 207
Thomas Aquinas on Individual Judgment 207
Islam and Authority 208

15. The Comic and the Tragic in Ethics 211

Humor and Knowledge 212
 1. Surprise 212
 2. Incongruity 213
 3. Creative Imagination 214
 4. Affectivity and Delight 215

Institutionalized Humor and the Taming of Power 216
 The Need for Liberative Madness 216
 The Sacred and the Silly 217
When Humor Goes Awry 218

Tragedy: Pain as Moral Pedagogue	218	Tragedy and Cognition	221
Tragedy as Road to Moral Truth	218	Summing Up the Wheel Model	222
Suffering as Moral Teacher	219
Suffering and Character	220
Lessons Unlearned	220

16. Conscience and Guilt: The Agenbite of Inwit 225

Our Consciences, Our Selves	226	From Sin to Guilt	234
Nature or Nurture?	227	The Viability of Sin-Talk	235
Chastening Conscience	228	A Dangerous Species	235
Smart Love and Communal Conscience	228	Three Understandings of Guilt	236
Affective Evaluation Processes	228	1. Taboo Guilt	236
Principles, Reason, and Analysis	230	Earlier Taboos	236
Reliance	230	Modern Taboos	236
Individual and Group Experience	230	2. Egoistic Guilt	237
Comedy and Tragedy	231	3. Realistic Guilt	237
Should You Always Follow Your     Conscience?	231	Omission or Commission	237
The Fallibility of Conscience	231	Unnecessary Harm	238
The Principle of Respectable Debate	232	The Environmental Factor	239
Authority and Conscientious Dissent	233	Collective Guilt: If Everybody Is Guilty,     Is Anybody Guilty?	239
Insight, Not Permission	233	The Limits of Collective Guilt	240
The Place of Enthusiasm	234	The Ontology of Collective Guilt	240
		Justice Theory as Key	241
		Entrenched Egoism	241

PART FIVE

Hazards of Moral, Political, and Economic Discourse

---

17. The Power of Myth 247

Negative Myths: Interpretation and     Ideology	248	The Mythologized Woman	253
Seeing Myth in Action	249	The Myth of Development	253
Myth and Foreign Policy	249	Myth and Historiography	254
Sacral Hues	249	Joachim's Trinitarian Symbolism	255
The Imperial Urge	251	The Myth of Modernity	255
Myths as Mutants	252	Myth-Busting and the Fog of     Communication	256

Mundus vult decipi: People Want to Be Deceived 257

When Facts Are Not Facts 257
The Fate of Revisionist History 258

18. Obstacles to Right Thinking 261

Forbidden Memories 261

Falling in Love with Mastodons 263

- The Mastodon of War 263
- The Neoliberal Mastodon 264
- Other Mastodons 264

Thinking Through Moods 265

- Enough and More 265
- Defining Mood 266
- Belief and Mood 267
- The Autonomy of Mood 267

Short-Circuiting by Way of False Analogy 268

The Hazards of Analogical Knowing 268
False Analogies to Animal Behavior 269

Abstractly Speaking 270

Abstraction and Propaganda 271
The “Ought-to-Is” Fallacy and Stereotypes 272

Selective Virtue 272

The Evasion Gambit 272
Selective Memory 273

The Rule of Role 274

The Numbing Death of Awe 274

19. Epilogue: Religion, Ethics, and the Social Sciences 277

Facing the Downsides of Religion 278

Would the Positives Please Come Forward! 280

1. Religions Are Culture-Shapers 281
  - Religion’s Democratizing Power* 281
  - Religion’s Subversive Power* 282
  - Ingredients for Theory* 282
  - Peace and Redistribution* 282
  - Dismantling the Royal Pyramid* 283
  - Toppling Top-Heaviness* 284

2. Godless Religion 284

3. The Missing Hermeneutics 285

4. Religions as Mutants 286

History Chastens 286
Reimagination 286

5. The Secular Is Religious 287

Misplaced Sacreds 287
Beyond Divorce and Excommunication 288

In Fine . . . 288

Notes 291

Glossary 321

Index 327