

Chapter 7 Tool

A Committee-Based Structure

In a committee-based structure, the congregation council might consist of the pastor, officers, and chair of each committee or planning team. Another option is for each council member to serve as a liaison to one or two committees. Each committee would have its own chair and submit only written reports to the council.

Our Structure: Carrying Out the Vision, copyright © Augsburg Fortress.
May be reproduced for local use.