

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction Lillian I. Larsen	1
1. Hans Dieter Betz: Ur-ancestor of New Testament Rhetorical Criticism Troy W. Martin	13
2. Response to Troy W. Martin and Additional Reflections Hans Dieter Betz	45
3. Genealogies of Rhetorical Criticism: The Kennedy Family C. Clifton Black	51
4. Response to C. Clifton Black and Further Insights Duane F. Watson	79
5. The Contribution of Wilhelm Wuellner to New Testament Rhetorical Criticism James D. Hester and J. David Hester	93
6. Response to James D. Hester and J. David Hester: A Personal Reflection Thomas H. Olbricht	127

7.	Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza and the Rhetoric and Ethic of Inquiry John R. Lanci	133
8.	Response to John R. Lanci: Transforming the Discipline—The Rhetoricity/Rhetorality of New* Testament Studies Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza	165
9.	The Pesky Threads of Robbins’s Rhetorical Tapestry: Vernon K. Robbins’s Genealogy of Rhetorical Criticism L. Gregory Bloomquist	201
10.	Response to L. Gregory Bloomquist: From the Social Sciences to Rhetography Vernon K. Robbins	225
11.	Of Mappings and Men (and Women): Reflections on Rhetorical Genealogies Todd Penner and Davina C. Lopez	245
	Bibliography	271
	Index	323