

Contents

Preface	ix
Carlos A. Segovia
Introduction	1
The Three Paths to Salvation of Paul the Jew Gabriele Boccaccini (with responses by Albert I. Baumgarten and Daniel Boyarin)
Part I. Paul and Scripture/Paul in Scripture
1. Who Is the Righteous Remnant in Romans 9–11? The Concept of Remnant in Early Jewish Literature and Paul’s Letter to the Romans Shayna Sheinfeld	33
2. The “Historical Paul” and the Paul of Acts Which Is More Jewish? Isaac W. Oliver	51
Part II. Paul and Second Temple Apocalypticism
3. Paul, the Jewish Apocalypses, and Apocalyptic Eschatology James H. Charlesworth	83
4. Paul’s Messianic Christology Larry W. Hurtado	107

5. Heavenly Mysteries and Otherworldly Journeys
Interpreting 1 and 2 Corinthians in Relation to Jewish Apocalypticism 133
Matthew Goff

Part III. Paul and Gentile Inclusiveness

6. Paul and the Food Laws 151
A Reassessment of Romans 14:14, 20
David Rudolph
7. The Pauline Ἐκκλησίαι and Images of Community in Enoch Traditions 183
Kathy Ehrensperger

Part IV. Paul between Empire and Jewish Identity

8. Engendering Judaism 219
Paul, Baptism, and Circumcision
Joshua Garroway
9. Paul's Jewish Identity in the Roman World 245
Beyond the Conflict Model
Jeremy Punt

Part V. Paul beyond Judaism?

10. Paul the Jew Was Also Paul the Hellenist 273
Anders Klostergaard Petersen
11. Paul, Antisemitism, and Early Christian Identity
Formation 301
William Campbell

12. Discussing/Subverting Paul	341
Polemical Rereadings and Competing Supersessionist
Misreadings of Pauline Inclusivism in Late Antiquity:
A Case Study on the Apocalypse of Abraham, Justin Martyr, and the Qur'an
Carlos A. Segovia
Index of Names	363