

Contents

Contributors	vii
1. Paul's Interlocutor in Romans: The Problem of Identification Runar M. Thorsteinsson, Matthew Thiessen, and Rafael Rodríguez	1
2. The Non-Jewish Interlocutor in Romans 2:17 and the Salvation of the Nations: Contextualizing Romans 1:18–32 Magnus Zetterholm	39
3. Paul's So-Called Jew and Lawless Lawkeeping Matthew Thiessen	59
4. Paul's Gentile Interlocutor in Romans 3:1–20 Joshua D. Garroway	85
5. Romans 5–8 in Light of Paul's Dialogue with a Gentile Who "Calls Himself a Jew" Rafael Rodríguez	101
6. The Self-Styled Jew of Romans 2 and the Actual Jews of Romans 9–11 Matthew V. Novenson	133
7. Romans 2 Within the Broader Context of Gentile Judaizing in Early Christianity Michele Murray	163

8. What are the Implications of the Ethnic Identity of Paul's Interlocutor? Continuing the Conversation Joshua W. Jipp	183
Ancient Sources Index	205
Authors Index	221