1 SAMUEL

1 Samuel 17:1-52

Huge Goliath was scary, but little David was deadly! Goliath met his end when David used his trusty sling and a smooth stone. Match each small deadly thing to its description.

- You know if you’ve accidentally eaten these if you have vomiting, bloody diarrhea, and stomach pain, before falling into a coma.
- This tiny cutie comes in many rainy-clump varieties that cause boils, which can be fatal, especially to unborn babies.
- From this tiny cutie comes a smelly stuff with a pungent that causes boils, which can be fatal, especially to unborn babies.
- Some buzzing isn’t rare, and neither are their victims. Through malaria, dengue fever, and West Nile diseases, these little suckers kill over 1 million people a year.
- So cute, so deadly! These little sea creatures give one warning, then hit you with a neurotoxin that will paralyze you.
- There are over 30,000 venomous varieties of these common creatures!

Who wrote this?
Did Samuel write 1 Samuel? Probably not. Since it is such a complete history, it is believed that a team of authors wrote it later. They probably worked on it for more than 100 years!

Why was this written?
First Samuel helps to explain how Israel went from bumbling sinners ruled by judges to a major kingdom with a proper ruler and roots. The authors wrote it mainly to show that God had done all this for them.

What’s the connection?
Back in the book of Genesis, God made a promise—a covenant—to the early Israelites, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. God promised to always love and bless them. Through Moses, God gave them the law to help them understand how they should live. (Read about that in the books Exodus through Deuteronomy.) Now, through the establishment of a kingdom in Israel, God’s covenant was finally fulfilled.

How does this work?
Hannah prayed and prayed for a baby. Finally, God blessed her with a son named Samuel. He grew up in the temple, where God called him to become a powerful prophet and leader of Israel. God told Samuel to anoint Saul. (Anointing means that Samuel poured oil on Saul’s head to show that he was chosen to be king.) Later, when Saul didn’t work out as king, Samuel anointed David, who became the greatest king of Israel.

Where should I go from here?
• God calls and Samuel listens (chapter 3:1-18).
• The first king is chosen (chapter 9).
• Saul loses God’s favor (chapter 15:10-35).
• David prevails over Goliath (chapter 17).
• A king and his sons die (chapter 31).

David and Goliath

17 Now the Philistines gathered their armies for battle; they were gathered at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and camped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim. 2 Saul and the Israelites gathered and camped in the valley of Elah, and formed ranks against the Philistines. 3 The Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side, with a valley between them. 4 And there came out from the camp of the Philistines a champion named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. 5 He had a helmet of bronze on his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; the weight of the coat was five hundred shekels of bronze. 6 He had greaves of bronze on his legs and a javelin of bronze slung between his shoulders. 7 The shaft of his spear was like a weaver’s beam, and his shield-bearer went before him. 8 He stood and shouted to the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke these words of the Philistines a champion named Goliath, Goliath by name, came up out of the Philistines a champion named Goliath, Goliath by name, came out of the Philistines, fighting Philistines, and speaking the war cry. 9 Then Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistines, and spoke these words of the Philistines, and spoke the same words as before. And David heard them. 10 And Saul said to David, “Are you not a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth.” 11 But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and whenever a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb from the flock, 12 I went after it and struck it down, rescuing the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned against me, I would catch it by the jaw, strike it down, and kill it. 13 Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God.” 14 David said, “The Lord, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.” 15 So Saul said to David, “Go, and may the Lord be with you!” 16 And Saul clothed David with his armor; he put a bronze helmet on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail. 17 David strapped the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.” 18 Saul said to David, “Go, and may the Lord be with you!” 19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting against the Philistines. 20 David rose early in the morning, left the sheep with a keeper, and went as Jesse had commanded him. 21 He came to the encampment as the army was going forth to the battle line, shouting the war cry. 22 David left the things in charge of his brothers, ran into the army. 23 And he went as Jesse had commanded him. He came to the encampment and found the army was going forth to the battle line, shouting the war cry. 24 He talked with them, the champions, the Philistines of Gath, Goliath by name, came out of the Philistines, and spoke the same words as before. And David heard them. 25 He talked with them, the champions, the Philistines of Gath, Goliath by name, came out of the Philistines, fighting against the Philistines, and speaking the war cry. 26 Then the words that David spoke were heard, they repeated them before Saul; and he sent for him. 27 David said to Saul, “Let no one’s heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.” 28 Saul said to David, “You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth.” 29 But David said to Saul, “Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and whenever a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb from the flock, 30 I went after it and struck it down, rescuing the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned against me, I would catch it by the jaw, strike it down, and kill it. 31 Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God.” 32 David said, “The Lord, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.” 33 So Saul said to David, “Go, and may the Lord be with you!” 34 Saul clothed David with his armor; he put a bronze helmet on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail. 35 David strapped the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.” 36 Saul said to David, “Go, and may the Lord be with you!” 37 David said, “The Lord, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.” 38 Saul clothed David with his armor; he put a bronze helmet on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail. 39 David strapped the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.” 40 Saul said to David, “Go, and may the Lord be with you!” 41 The Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him. 42 When the Philistine looked and saw David, he despised him, for he was only a boy, and he was not used to them. 43 The Philistine said to David, “Am I a dog, that you Philistine said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the field.” 46 But David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with sword and spear and javelin; but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. 47 This very day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, 48 and that all this assembly may know that the LORD does not save by sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD’s and he will give you into our hand.”

When the Philistine drew nearer to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine. 6 David put his hand in his bag, took out a stone, slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead; the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground.

So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, striking down Goliath, the Installing his head; and I will strike you down and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, and that all this assembly may know that the LORD does not save by sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD’s and he will give you into our hand.”

So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone, striking down Goliath, the Philistine, he said to Abner, the commander of the army, “Abner, whose son is this young man?” Abner said, “As your soul lives, O king, I do not know.” 10 The king said, “Inquire whose son the striping is.”

When David’s return from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand. 12 Saul said to him, “Whose son are you, young man?” And David answered, “I am the son of your servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.”

Saul said to David, “Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the field.” 46 But David said to the Philistine, “You come to me with sword and spear and javelin; but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. 47 This very day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, and that all this assembly may know that the LORD does not save by sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD’s and he will give you into our hand.”

When David’s return from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand. 12 Saul said to him, “Whose son are you, young man?” And David answered, “I am the son of your servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.”

When David had finished speaking to Saul, the soul of Jonathan was bound to the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. 2 Saul took him that day and would not let him return to his father’s house. 3 Then Jonathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as his own soul. 4 Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that he was wearing, and gave it to David, and his armor, and even his sword and his bow and his belt. 5 David went out and was successful wherever Saul sent him; as a result, Saul set him over the army. 6 And all the people, even the servants of Saul, approved.

As they were coming home, when Da-vid returned from killing the Philistine, the women came out of all the towns of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with songs of joy, and with musical instruments. 7 And the women sang to one another as they made merry, “Saul has killed his thousands, 8 and David his ten thousands.”

Saul was very angry, for this saying displeased him. He said, “They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed thousands; what more can he have but the kingdom?” 11 So Saul eyed David from that day on.

Saul tries to kill David
10 The next day an evil spirit from God rushed upon Saul, and he raved within his house, while David was playing the lyre, as he did by day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand; 11 and Saul threw the spear, for he thought, “I will pin David to the wall.” But David eluded him twice.

12 Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him but had departed from Saul. 13 So Saul removed him from his presence, and made him a commander of a thousand; and David marched out and came in, leading the army. 14 David had success in all his undertakings; for the LORD was with him. 15 When Saul saw that he had great success, he stood in awe of him.

But all Israel and Judah loved David; for it was he who marched out and came in leading them.

David marries Michal
17 Then Saul said to David, “Here is my elder daughter Merab; I will give her to you as a wife; only be valiant for me and fight the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that I may be avenged on the king’s enemies.”

20 Now Saul’s daughter Michal loved Da-vid. Saul was told, and the thing pleased him. 21 Saul thought, “Let me give her to him that she may be a snare for him and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.” Therefore Saul said to David a second time, “You shall now be my son-in-law.” 22 Saul com-manded his servants, “Speak to David in private and say, ‘See, the king is delighted with you, and all his servants love you; now then, become the king’s son-in-law.’” 23 Saul’s servants reported these words to David in private.

But David said, “Does it seem to you a little thing to become the king’s son-in-law; seeing that I am a poor man and of no repute?” 24 The servants of Saul told him, “This is what David said.” 25 Then Saul said, “Thus shall you say to David, ‘The king desires no marriage present except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, that he may be avenged on the king’s enemies.’”

Now Saul planned to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

When his servants told David these words, David was well pleased to be the king’s son-in-law. Before the time had expired, 2 David rose and went, along with his men, and killed one hundred of the Philistines and brought their foreskins, which were given in full number to the king, that he might become the king’s son-in-law. Saul gave him his daughter Michal as a wife. 26 But when Saul realized that the LORD was with David, and that Saul’s daughter Michal loved him, 27 Saul was still more afraid of David. So Saul was David’s enemy from that time forward.

30 Then the commanders of the Philis-tines came out to battle; and as often as they came out, David had more success than all the servants of Saul, so that his fame became very great.

Jonathan intercedes for David
1 Saul spoke with his son Jonathan and with all his servants about killing Da-vid. But Saul’s son Jonathan took great delight in David. 2 Jonathan told David, “My father Saul is try-ing to kill you; therefore be on guard tomorrow morning; stay in a secret place and hide yourself. 3 I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will speak to my father about you; if I learn any-
