

HOW TO RECEIVE COMMUNION

“Katie Lu” is seen in this video commercial slaving over a hot oven to bake the “reconciliation biscuits” for the church altar guild to use for the Lord’s Supper. She is working so hard that one can hardly blame her for being short-tempered when her husband, “Winkie” Luther, comes in asking dummkopf questions. But actually tasting the biscuits seems to put both of them into a more conciliatory mood (even if it makes them a little thirsty).

1. Who bakes the “reconciliation biscuits” at your church? Does your congregation use real bread or wafers?
2. Have you ever noticed the eating of Communion bread to cause tempers to immediately cool and enemies to suddenly embrace one another in love? If not, why not?
3. In what way(s) does the Lord’s Supper bring about reconciliation? How does it happen? How long does it usually take?
